Cancellations will be accepted by emailing: Randy Pike at baldeaglesrc@hotmail.com.

Categories: Target rifle; F-Class (Open); F-Class (T/R). There will be separate awards for each category. F-Class (T/R) may be combined with F-Class (Open) if there are insufficient entries to support a separate category. Please note that all three matches are NRA Registered matches.

Rules: The rule book for NRA International Fullbore Rifle/NRA H.P. & F-Class will be used.

These Rule Books are available on the internet at: <http://www.nrahq.org/compete/nra-rule-books.asp>.

Competitor Eligibility: This competition is open to all. All competitors (including International shooters) are encouraged to join the NRA-USA. Applications are available online at www.nra.org. Cost for 1-year membership is $45.00. NRA-USA membership is required for setting National Records.

Competitor Classifications: This is a classified match and will be conducted using the current NRA International Fullbore Rifle Classification system in all matches. High Masters will have to register as Masters if they do not have a Fullbore classification.

Challenge Fees: Challenge fees on the firing line will be $5.00 paid at the time challenge is made, refundable if the shooter wins the challenge. A three -person jury system will make any necessary rule interpretations/applications. The match director will post the names of the jury members at the event.

Ammunition: Individuals must provide their own ammunition. All ammunition is subject to testing.

- Target Rifle: For the SOA & RMP, only, the bullet weight for the .308/7.62 must be less than 156 grains and the bullet weight for the .223/5.56 must be less than 92 grains.
- F-Class: Ammunition must comply with rule 3.17.

Target Service: Competitors will be required to mark targets in individual matches unless assigned to other duties or are exempted from target service by the Match Director. Competitors may be assigned to pull target points different than their assigned firing point. Grand seniors (70 years and older) are not required to pull targets but may be asked to help on the firing line or pits. Any competitor failing to perform his/her target pulling or scoring duties may be disqualified. There are no paid pullers available. However, you may bring someone to pull for you at YOUR OWN EXPENSE, YOU WILL STILL BE REQUIRED TO REPORT TO THE PITS FOR OTHER DUTIES, UNLESS YOU ARE ASSIGNED LINE DUTIES.

Bald Eagles Rifle Club Code of Conduct: The safety of fellow competitors, match officials, volunteers, and bystanders, shall always be the primary objective. Competitors are expected to be familiar with and follow the NRA Fullbore Prone Rifle Rules, NRA safe firearms handling rules, and policies and procedures set by NRA Whittington Center (NRA-WC), and the Bald Eagles Rifle Club (BERC).

1. A competitor who is or appears to be under the influence of perception-altering substances will not be allowed to compete or otherwise handle firearms.
2. Competitors will refrain from talking, disrupting, or interfering with the daily safety briefing or any other announcements made during or prior to the start of the event.
3. During the match, competitors will refrain from actions that distract the shooters, safety officers, and other competitors.
4. Competitors will not communicate with others in a threatening, harassing, or abusive manner. If there is a question or other issue(s), the first contact will be with the Chief Range Officer.
5. Violation of this Code of Conduct will be dealt with by the Match Director in accordance with the NRA International Fullbore Prone Rifle rules and, as necessary, in coordination with the Bald Eagles Rifle Club Board of Directors.

Range Procedures:

● Empty Chamber Indicator (ECI): Safety is paramount! Rifles will have actions open, magazines removed, and an ECI inserted into the chamber at all times, except when on the firing line during the preparation period, or during live firing. ECIs will be available for $1.00.

● Procedure for Clearing the Line: At no time is a competitor to leave the firing line with a loaded rifle! All competitors are responsible for safe rifles while on the firing line. At no time should a competitor get out of position without having first placed an Empty Chamber Indicator (ECI) into the empty chamber of his/her rifle. This must be verified by the competitor's scorekeeper. The penalty for violating this rule is disqualification for both competitor and scorekeeper.

● Preparation Period: Once the competitors have their relay called to the line they may place all their equipment on the line, except their rifles. Rifles must stay behind the ready line until the two minute warning has been given. When given the two minute warning, the competitors may bring their rifles to the line. The empty chamber indicator (ECI) must remain in the rifle until the three minute preparation period has been called. The ECI may be removed, but no ammunition may be loaded during the three minute preparation period. Anyone who fires a shot during the preparation period will be scored a miss for the first record shot of that match. They will also receive no further sighting or practice shots. Anyone who fires a shot prior to the preparation period or any other non-firing period will be disqualified from the competition.

- Blow-Off Period: There will be a one minute blow-off for each relay at the beginning of each day in the SOA Individual and team matches. Shots fired during the blow-off must impact the earthen berm behind the targets. There will be no firing before sunrise or after sunset on any range on the Whittington Center.
- Hearing and Eye Protection: Hearing and eye protection is recommended on the firing line and in the pits. A billed hat is also recommended.
- Cellphone use is prohibited when firing, scoring, or performing pitt duties (rule 3.23). Use of a cell phone to keep time is permitted only when “cellular data” is turned off, i.e., the phone is in “Airplane Mode”.
- Speed limit on range roads is 15 mph.
- Competitors must use the range busses to go to and from the pits.
- Squadding: All matches will be squadded by the Statistical Officer. Squadding will be available one hour before the start of the match.
- Daily start time: All competitors must report to the statistical office by 7:30 AM every day. Matches will start at 8:00 AM each day unless the Match Director makes an announcement prior to the end of the match on the previous day.
- Challenge period: Preliminary scores for the daily matches will be posted after 8:00 PM at <http://www.baldeaglesrc.org>. The Challenge Period ends at 7:15 AM the following day. On banquet/ceremony days, a paper copy of the preliminary scores will be posted at the statistical office approximately one and a half (1.5) hours after that day's firing.

Special Accommodations: Special provisions may be made for competitors who enter the match as a Handicapped Competitor and/or a competitor who qualifies as a Grand Senior. Every attempt will be made to accommodate competitors with special needs such as sharing equipment, providing such needs are made known in a timely fashion. Sharing rides will not usually require special accommodations in as much as bus transportation to and from the pits will be provided. Parking behind each firing line is permitted. Competitors must make arrangements with companions to move their vehicles if the driver is in the pits during a line change.

Targets: 300 yards – MR63; 500 yards – MR65; 600 yards – MR1; 900 & 1000 yards LR targets.
F-Class : 300 yards – MR63FC; 500 yards - MR65FC; 600 yards - MR1FC; 900 & 1000 yards; LR-FC.

Awards: Winners of individual matches, and during the SOA team events, will be recognized after the challenge period has ended (the following morning).

- Classification awards: For grand aggregate matches only provided there are a minimum of five competitors within a classification (by rifle type, where F/TR and F/O may be combined). Classes will be combined upward as required except that the High Master Class will not be combined. If less than five competitors in the High Master classification, they will fire for place awards only. Competitors winning a place award will not receive a class award in the same match. The number of awards is determined by the number in the class. Second place and so forth awards will be given based on one award for each five (5) competitors, i.e. second 6-10, third 11-15, etc.
- Special Individual Awards: High Junior, Senior, Grand Senior, Woman and Service will be awarded when 5 or more competitors are entered in any special category. Special Individual Awards are given only for the Grand Aggregate. Service is defined as: Active Duty, Reserve or National Guard, Retired US Military, or Veteran of US Military for SOA only.
- Banquet and/or ceremony: Specifics regarding type/time/location will be posted during the event. If a dinner is held, guests will be charged $20.00. Wednesday, September 13th, will be the dinner/awards ceremony for SOA both individual and team matches. Awards will be given for the individual matches and the team matches immediately following the challenge period on the day the matches are fired.
